Re: Modification to Service Agreement

Dear Mr. Dillard:

Per our mutually agreed discussion, Intermedix Technologies, Inc. (dba ADPI/Intermedix) is presenting this modification to our Service Agreement for your consideration. The Service Agreement dated October 1, 2007 is amended as follows:

Section 4.03(a) and 4.03(b) are stricken in their entirety and replaced with the following language depicted in italics;

Section 4.03(a) Six and seventy one-hundredths percent (6.70%) of all monies collected by CONTRACTOR, plus,

Section 4.03(b) Two and fifty one-hundredths percent (2.50%) of all monies collected by CONTRACTOR for use of CONTRACTOR provided field data capturing and reporting system consisting of up to and including six (6) toughbook style PC units, Field Automation Software, Administrative Reporting System, includes training and support (referred heretofore as "TripTix Mobile"), plus,

There are no other changes and both parties agree that the above changes constitute the full and complete change to the Service Agreement. Additionally, the previous Modification to Service Agreement dated April 10, 2008, is rescinded upon the effective date of this modification.

This modification, if acceptable, will have an effective date of October 1, 2010 upon satisfactory execution by the signatories below.

Should this modification to the Service Agreement as set out in this letter be acceptable to you, please have this original signed and return it to me at:

Richard C. Klemme, Client Services Director
Intermedix Technologies, Inc.
16340 Park Ten Place, Suite #325
Houston, TX 77084

Once I have received the signed letter I will have it countersigned by our corporate office and forward you a copy of the letter for your files.
