In case of any action or proceeding brought against Lessor by reason of any such claim, Lessee, upon notice from Lessor, covenants to defend such action or proceeding by counsel acceptable to Lessor. Further, such indemnity shall not be limited by the amount of insurance carried by either party hereto.

9. Default by Lessee. The following events shall be deemed to be events of default under this lease:

A. Failure of Lessee to pay any installment of rent or other sum payable to Lessor hereunder on the date that same is due and such failure shall continue for a period of 30 days.

B. Failure of Lessee to comply with any term, condition or covenant of this lease, other than the payment of rent or other sum of money, and such failure shall not be cured within 60 days after written notice thereof to Lessee.

C. Insolvency, the making of a transfer in fraud of creditors, or the making of an assignment for the benefit of creditors by Lessee or any guarantor of Lessee's obligation.

D. Abandonment by Lessee of any substantial portion of the leased premises or cessation of use accompanied with the cessation of rent of the leased premises for the purpose leased.

10. Remedies of Lessor. Upon the occurrence of any of the events of default listed in Paragraph 8, Lessor shall have the option to pursue any one or more of the following remedies without any notice or demand whatsoever;

A. Terminate this lease, in which event Lessee shall immediately surrender the leased premises to Lessor. If Lessee fails to so surrender such premises, Lessor may, without prejudice to any other remedy which it may have for possession of the leased premises or arrearages in rent, enter upon and take possession of the leased premises and expel or remove Lessee and any other person who may be occupying such premises or any part thereof, by force if necessary, without being liable for prosecution or any claim for damages therefor. Lessee shall pay to Lessor on demand the amount of all loss and damage which Lessor may suffer by reason of such termination, whether through inability to relet the leased premises on satisfactory terms or otherwise.

B. Enter upon and take possession of the leased premises, by force if necessary, without terminating this lease and without being liable for prosecution or for any claim for damages therefor, and expel or remove Lessee and any other person who may be occupying such premises or any part thereof. Lessor may relet the leased premises and receive the rent therefor. Lessee may relet the leased premises and receive the rent therefor. Lessee agrees to pay to Lessor monthly or on demand from time to time any deficiency that may arise by reason of any such reletting. In determining the amount of such deficiency, the reasonable brokerage commission, attorney's fees, remodeling expenses and other costs of reletting shall be subtracted from the amount of rent received under such reletting.

Pursuit of any of the foregoing remedies shall not preclude pursuit of any of the other remedies herein provided or any other remedies provided by law, nor shall pursuit of any remedy herein provided constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rent due to Lessor hereunder or of any damages accruing to Lessor by reason of the violation of any of the terms, conditions and covenants herein contained.

11. Lessor's lien. In addition to the statutory Lessor's lien, Lessee hereby grants to Lessor a security interest to secure payment of all rent and other sums of money becoming due hereunder from Lessee, upon all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture and other personal property of Lessee, except personal files, including voter registration files and all other voter election and associated voter election files that Lessee owns and/or is responsible for, situated in or upon the demised premises, together with the proceeds from the sale or lease thereof. Such property shall not be removed without the consent of Lessor until all arrearages in rent and other sums of money then due to Lessor hereunder shall first have been paid and discharged. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, Lessor may, in addition to any other remedies provided herein or by law enter upon the leased premises and take possession of any and all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture and other personal property of Lessee, except personal files, including the voter registration equipment noted above, situated on the premises without liability for trespass or conversion, and sell the same at public or private sale, with or without having such property at the sale, after giving Lessee reasonable notice of the time and place of any such sale. Unless otherwise required by law, notice to Lessee of such sale shall be deemed sufficient if given in the manner prescribed in this lease at least 10 days before time of the sale. Any public sale made under this paragraph shall be deemed to have been conducted in a commercially reasonable manner if held in the leased premises or where the property is located, after time, place, and method of sale and a general description of the types of property to be sold have been advertised in a daily newspaper published in Wise County, Texas for five consecutive days before the date of sale, Lessor or its assigns may purchase at a public sale and, unless prohibited by law at a private sale. The proceeds from any disposition dealt with in this paragraph, less any and all expenses connected with the taking of possession, holding and selling of the property (including reasonable attorney' fees and legal expenses), shall be applied as a credit against the indebtedness secured by the security interest granted herein. Any surplus shall be paid to Lessee or as otherwise required by law; Lessees shall pay any deficiencies forthwith. Upon request by Lessor, Lessee agrees to execute and deliver to Lessor a financing statement in form sufficient to perfect the security interest of Lessor in the aforementioned property and proceeds thereof under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code in force in the State of Texas. The statutory lien for rent is expressly reserved; the security interest herein granted is in addition and supplementary thereto.

12. Attorney's Fee. If, on account of any breach or default by Lessor or Lessee of their respective obligations under this lease, it shall become necessary for the other to employ an attorney to enforce or defend any of its rights or remedies hereunder, and should such party prevail, it shall be entitled to any reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in such connection.

13. Waiver of Default. No waiver by the parties hereto of any default or breach of any term, condition or covenant of this lease shall be deemed to be waiver of any subsequent default or breach of the same or any other term, condition or covenant contained herein.

14. Assignment and Subleasing. Lessee shall not, without the written consent of Lessor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned, assign this lease. Lessee may not sublet the leased premises without the written consent of Lessor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Any assignment or subletting shall be expressly subject to all terms and provisions of this lease, and any such subletting shall not extend past the primary term of this lease. In the event of any assignment or subletting Lessee shall remain fully liable for the full performance of all Lessee's obligations under this lease. Lessee shall not assign his rights hereunder or sublet the premises without first obtaining a written agreement from assignee or sublessee whereby assignee or sublessee agrees to be bound by the terms of this lease. No such assignment or subletting shall constitute a novation. In the event of the occurrence of an event of default while the demised premises are assigned or sublet, Lessor, in addition to any other remedies provided herein or by law may at Lessor's option collect directly from such assignee or sublessee all rents becoming due under such assignment or subletting and apply such rent against any sums due to Lessor hereunder. No direct collection by Lessor from any such assignee or sublessee shall release Lessee from the performance of its obligations hereunder.

15. Lessee's covenants. Lessee covenants that he will at the expiration of said term or any extension thereof peaceably yield up to said Lessor the above described premises in as good condition as at this date, reasonable wear and use thereof excepted.

Lessee further covenants that he will fully comply with all local ordinances, laws, rules and regulations of the state and governments, the local municipal government and all other authorities regarding the use of the leased premises, and that he will commit no act thereon which constitutes a public nuisance.

16. Miscellaneous. This agreement shall be construed under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and all obligations of the parties created hereunder are performable in Wise County, Texas.

This agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators legal representatives, successors, and assigns except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision thereof and this agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

17. Representation of parties. Lessor is represented by Simpson, Boyd & Powers, Attorneys. Lessee acknowledges by its execution hereof that said attorneys have advised Lessee to obtain its own independent legal representation, and that the above attorneys do not represent Lessee in this matter.
